Community Discussions on Protecting Water for Future Generations

Canadian Environmental Law Association (CELA), Ontario Environment Network (OEN), and Ontario Headwaters Institute (OHI) share this template agenda, based on a 5:30 pm start, for the community discussions on protecting Ontario's water, as below.

The event is free, but to ensure the right amount of chairs and coffee we ask you to register for the events as described at <http://ontarioheadwaters.ca/wp-content/uploads/2018/01/Waterscape-Dates-and-Registration.pdf>.

Sample Agenda

- 5:30 Arrivals, coffee, networking over handouts and maps
- 6:00 Welcome: OHI - Purpose of the meeting and outline of agenda
- 6:05 Introduction: OEN - First Nations acknowledgement; the global water challenge
- 6:15 The Policy Context: CELA – PowerPoint presentation on differences between water protection regimes inside and outside of the Greenbelt, with Q&A
- 6:45 Community Discussion: OHI - Participants will have an opportunity to introduce themselves and the meeting will address two questions:
- Are the increased measures in the Greenbelt adequate to the need to protect water there? and,
 - Are there other areas of the province where increased protection for water should be applied?
- 7:45 Closing Plenary: In addition to summarizing comments, this session will address the question:
- Is the Province doing enough to protect water?
