

Headwater Hikes

SAFETY GUIDELINES AND DISCLAIMERS

Personal Safety

- ◆ Some of these Hikes are in remote areas: tell someone where you are headed and when you are due back. Cell phones may not work in remote areas. Consider bringing a walking stick and/or a whistle.
- ◆ Observe all local rules. Respect trail-use designations and other users.
- ◆ No fires, firearms, fireworks, nor hunting.
- ◆ Leave only footprints and take only photographs.
- ◆ Wear proper footwear, especially for mud & ice, and dress appropriately.
- ◆ Dogs must be on-leash and their donations bagged and hauled out.

Disclaimers

Drawings and maps associated with Headwater Hikes are illustrative only, intended to portray general characteristics at the regional level. Do not rely on the drawings and maps as a guide to navigation or as a precise indicator of routes, locations, or property boundaries.

All drawings, maps, and the information provided in the Hike descriptions have been prepared by a variety of organizations and individuals and represent emerging and in-exact data for which no warranties or representations - express or implied, statutory or otherwise - shall apply or are being made by the Ontario Headwaters Institute (OHI), the Friends of the Greenbelt Foundation (the Foundation), nor any other organization cited on Headwater Hike material with respect to its documentation, accuracy, or completeness.

In no event will the OHI, the Foundation, nor other organizations mentioned herein be liable or responsible for any lost profits, loss of revenue or earnings, claims by third parties or for any economic, indirect, special, incidental, consequential or exemplary damage resulting from any errors, inaccuracies or omissions in this documentation; and in no event will the OHI nor its partners, supporters, nor sponsors accept liability for any such errors, inaccuracies or omissions on any particular claim, proceeding or action, including any claim for expenses purported to involve material or actions relating the information posted to, in response to, or in any way related to the information on this website.

The limitations, exclusions and disclaimers expressed above shall apply irrespective of the nature of any cause of action, demand, or action, including but not limited to breach of contract, negligence, strict liability, tort or any other legal theory, and shall survive any fundamental breach or breaches.

Persons and/or organizations availing themselves of the documents, drawings, and/or maps on this website are deemed to have read and accepted these disclaimers as a normal requirement of due diligence in accessing the descriptions of the Headwater Hikes and/or undertaking any Hike.

Headwater Hikes is sponsored by the Friends of the Greenbelt Foundation

